

Jesus Is Alive! Celebrate Easter!

by David C. Mauldin

Jesus Christ is alive! This is our hope and the strong foundation of our faith. On Easter Sunday we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus. But Easter is not just a day. It is a season that stretches seven weeks from Easter to Pentecost. I invite you to join our celebration.

Easter ranks first among holidays because nothing makes a greater difference than the Resurrection. To put it bluntly, if God did not raise Jesus from the dead, Christianity is bankrupt, worthless, a waste of time. But, if God did raise Jesus from the dead, then...Jesus is Lord, death is not the end, and you can find new life in Jesus alone.

Over the first three Sundays of Easter, I will be preaching on the Resurrection. On Easter itself, I will preach about what the Resurrection means. The next Sunday is Thomas Sunday. (Yes, I made that up. The power to make up holidays is one of the most fun parts of my job.) You may recall the disciple Thomas doubted the Resurrection until he saw the risen Jesus. On Thomas Sunday, the sermon is about evidence for the Resurrection and why you should believe it really happened. The following Sunday doesn't have a special name, but I will preach about Resurrection hope and eternal life.

Here is a little golden nugget I won't be able to fit into my sermon on Thomas Sunday: Beginning in the 19th century, skeptics began to claim that belief in Jesus' Resurrection was a late addition to Christianity. They argued that Jesus' first disciples never believed or preached the Resurrection. For some unfathomable reason, when Jesus was crucified, these disciples decided to keep following him and calling him the Messiah. Later on, when Christianity spread beyond Judaism to the larger Greek culture of the Roman Empire, some nut invented the idea of the Resurrection. That's what the skeptics said, basically. Never mind that Greek thought rejected the concept of Resurrection while many Jews believed in it. Anyway, the argument was that the Resurrection accounts in the gospels were invented later on. But there is a problem with that theory. OK, there are lots of problems with it, and no serious scholar argues this today.

One vital bit of evidence comes from Mark 16:2, which in the ESV reads, "And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb." That's a fine English translation, but Mark did not actually write "the first day of the week." In the original Greek, he wrote, "the one of the Sabbath." That sounds weird in English. It also sounds weird in Greek. So why did Mark write that? He could have written "the first day of the week" in normal, everyday Greek. Why such an odd phrase? It is not natural Greek, but it is idiomatic Aramaic! Aramaic was the language spoken by Jews in Palestine. It is the language of Jesus and his first disciples. Mark used this Aramaic expression because it had been handed down to him in the oral tradition. In other words, Mark's account of the Resurrection goes back a long way, back to the time of Jesus' first followers. It is far too early to be a later invention.

ANGEL OF THE MONTH

by Janet Sallman

Our angel this month wears many hats. Here at PCPC, the hat she has been wearing magnificently for so long that it's almost threadbare is that of lead usher for the 11:00 service. The essence of all that she does can be summed up in one word: "conscientious." She thinks of what needs to be done beforehand, makes sure everything runs smoothly during service, and wraps it up efficiently afterward. She has the same conscientiousness at Christmastime when she makes sure all the children of Gertrude Walden Child Care Center receive their gifts from our Giving Trees mission and that everyone involved is happy.

She has such a heart for the church, anticipating things that can be done in the future which will be a benefit to all who enter here. Whenever someone asks who is in charge, and our angel's name is mentioned, they respond with, "Oh, good, then I don't have to worry about a thing."

Our angel this month is LynnAnn White, a woman very dear to our church and a great model of Christ's love.

Tom Rosendahl memorial plaque in the dedicated garden area

Garden Gift

On Sunday, March 11, Pastor David, a group of Palm City Presbyterian deacons, and friends gathered in the columbarium's garden to dedicate the new garden planted in memory of Thomas E. Rosendahl.

"Tom was such an inspiration to us during the time he served as a deacon while battling his illness. His close walk with our Lord and continual witness were extraordinary qualities that remain a legacy for us," noted Patti Miller.

Pastor David shared words surrounding the passage from Matthew 25:21 — "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Donations from the Deacon Class of 2017 funded the gift for the garden beautification in remembrance of Tom. Tom's wife, Pat, and his daughter, Krista, placed the plaque for its dedication.

Thanks to all.

PCPC KIDS MONTHLY OVERVIEW

I am excited to announce that we have another fun-filled month in our children's ministry! This month is even more exciting because we get to celebrate the story of Jesus rising from the dead and saving us! We get to celebrate Easter! In each of our areas, I have outlined what our sweet little ones will be learning. Each week our children are presented with an engaging Bible story, praise and worship, and story-related activities and scripture. It is a joy to be part of planting the seeds of faith into the heart of our children!

Preschool

This month we have the awesome privilege of telling preschoolers that Jesus is God's Son, He is alive, and He wants to be their friend forever. It truly is BIG NEWS! For many of the preschoolers who will be celebrating Easter with us, this will not only be big news, it will be NEW news as well! We get to tell the amazing story of Easter to so many for the very first time. Imagine preschoolers running around telling the BIG NEWS that Jesus is alive—now THAT would be an awesome Easter. After Easter, we get to share with our preschoolers how the BIG NEWS that Jesus is alive spread throughout the land. We will hear the stories of how the early church began, how men traveled far to tell the news, and how people were changed because of the big news. Finally, we will remind preschoolers (and ourselves) that telling others the BIG NEWS truly is the best gift of all.

Week 1: The Easter Story: Jesus is Alive! (Matthew 26:20-30; 27:1-2; 28:1-7)

Week 2: Early Church (Acts 2:42-47)

Week 3: Saul to Paul (Acts 9:1-20; 13:9)

Week 4: Paul and Silas (Acts 16:16-34)

Week 5: Peter and John (Acts 3:1-11, 16)

MEMORY VERSE: "GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS." MATTHEW 28:19

KEY QUESTION: WHO CAN TELL OTHERS ABOUT JESUS?

BOTTOM LINE: I CAN TELL OTHERS ABOUT JESUS.

Elementary

In our elementary worship service we will be learning about God's patience. Why? Well, because God is in control and He knows how the story ends. Because of Jesus' sacrifice, we know how the story ends, too. Because of Jesus, WE CAN WAIT. We can trust that God is in control. We can have hope that things will work out in the end. And we can be patient because we know all that God has done. We will be learning about God's patience by learning from the following Bible stories:

Week 1: The Easter Story: Jesus is Alive! (Matthew 26:20-30; 27:1-2; 28:1-7)

Week 2: Hannah Prays for a Baby (1 Samuel 1:6-2:1)

Week 3: A Patience Proverb (Proverbs 14:29)

Week 4: Golden Calf (Exodus 32:1-35)

Week 5: Esau's Impatience (Genesis 25:24-34)

MEMORY VERSE: "WAIT FOR THE LORD. BE STRONG AND DON'T LOSE HOPE. WAIT FOR THE LORD!" PSALM 27:14, NIRV

BOTTOM LINE: PATIENCE: WAITING UNTIL LATER FOR WHAT YOU WANT NOW.

Jesus is Alive! Celebrate Easter!

by David C. Mauldin

Fun, huh? There is a mountain of evidence for the Resurrection. If you are a believer, you should be familiar with it—at least the basics. If you are not, you owe it to yourself to investigate the evidence and make an informed decision about Jesus. “But where should I start?” you ask. Below I’ve listed some books I highly recommend. I have sorted them by how challenging they are. The beginning level books are easy to read. Anyone can profit from them. The intermediate books are accessible to any thoughtful, educated person. Heavy hitters will want to tackle something from the advanced list.

Easter is here! Christ is alive! Come celebrate our Living Savior!

Beginning

The Case for Christ: A Journalist's Personal Investigation of the Evidence for Jesus

by Lee Strobel (Zondervan, 1998) ISBN 0310209307

Highly recommended and a pleasure to read. Strobel, an adult convert from atheism, interviews experts about Jesus and the resurrection.

More Than a Carpenter

by Josh McDowell and Sean McDowell

(Tyndale House, 2009) ISBN 9781414326276

Like The Case for Christ, it covers more topics than just the Resurrection. Who did Jesus claim to be? How can we know? How can we be certain he rose from the dead?

Intermediate

Did the Resurrection Happen?

A Conversation with

Gary Habermas and Antony Flew

by Gary R. Habermas and Antony Flew; edited by David J. Baggett (InterVarsity Press) ISBN 9780830837182

This book recounts a debate between Flew, who until 2004 was an atheist, and Habermas, a Christian. The editor provides additional helpful information.

The Case for the Resurrection of Jesus

by Gary R. Habermas and Michael R. Licona (Kregel, 2004) ISBN 082542788

A thorough examination of the evidence. Alternative theories are explored at length. Includes an interactive game CD.

Advanced

Reasonable Faith [Third Edition]

by William Lane Craig (Crossway, 2008) ISBN 9781433501159

Craig offers arguments for the existence of God and the Resurrection of Jesus. A powerful book by a premier Christian philosopher.

Reasonable Faith

Christian Truth and Apologetics

THIRD EDITION

WILLIAM LANE CRAIG

The Resurrection of Jesus: A New Historiographical Approach

by Michael R. Licona (IVP Academic, 2010) ISBN 9780830827190

Thorough and well-written, but with over 700 pages; not for the faint of mind.

fin

The Resurrection of the Son of God

By N. T. Wright (Fortress Press, 2003) ISBN

0800626796

The definitive study on the Resurrection by a premier New Testament scholar. Its 817 pages cover nearly every aspect of the topic, but it remains highly readable. See especially chapters 13 and 18.

Teaching Series

It's so easy to get lulled into a sleepy faith, seeing our relationship with God as just what we do on Sundays or at youth group. We're tempted to live for ourselves, pursuing the fleeting pleasures of sin instead of pursuing a vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ. But the time for sleeping is over – no more snooze button, no more pulling the covers over your head. It's time to wake up! In our new series that begins the second week of April, we will present a call to our students to AWAKEN their faith and reach their world (their friends, neighbors, and classmates) with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Confirmation Class Mission Project

How sweet it is!

— Beth Welmaker

Selecting a mission project seemed daunting at the start of the classes, but the 2018 Confirmation Class came up with a SWEET one! After hearing some attendees of the 11 a.m. worship service reminisce about how they used to enjoy lemonade and cookies after church, the seed for the project's idea was planted!

On Sunday, March 18th, three members of the Confirmation Class hosted the first Lemonade & Cookies social, and this will continue most Sundays until confirmation on May 19th. The students will take turns hosting each week, and they would love for you to stop by their table. If you typically dash out the side door straight to the parking lot, you might miss them! So take a few minutes next Sunday to enjoy refreshments in our courtyard and visit with friends! Thank you to those who have already visited and encouraged these wonderful students on their journey.

Join us for a fun night of newlywed-type games, and share laughs and stories with other couples from your church and community. Whether you are newly engaged or have been married for decades, this night is for you!

For $30 per couple, you will be served dinner, share in fellowship with other couples, and support both the PCPC Youth Group's summer mission trip and the PCPC MOPS ministry to the families in our community.

Childcare will be provided for children of all ages. The PCPC Youth Group will be feeding and entertaining the kids in the Huizenga Family Life Center. If you want to prepay, please make your check out to Palm City Presbyterian and write "Couples Night Out" on the memo line. It can be dropped off at the church office.

You can also pay at the door, but please make sure to RSVP to PCPC's Director of Youth Ministry, Jason Pridmore, by April 23rd so we can have a head count for food and childcare needs.

Our youth are eying a trip to Puerto Rico to assist in the cleanup efforts still needed on the island as a result of this past hurricane season. More details to follow. Narrowed down window of travel dates: June 9-17 or July 2-8, 2018.

A Message from Grandmothers and Others

Grandmothers and Others would like to say THANK YOU to all of those that have helped us with our mission to make clothing for the 4Cs (Caring Children Clothing Children) program. Last year, 4Cs provided clothing to over 5,000 children in Martin County; our group donated almost 400 complete outfits to the program. Store volunteers told me that when our outfits are hanging on the racks at their store, people immediately migrate to them and snatch them up for their children. Your generous donations of fabric, notions, and money make it all possible as we are entirely dependent on those contributions to be able to make our clothing.

Donations of any type are appreciated. If you are giving money, you can make your check out to PCPC, but please designate it for Grandmothers and Others so it will be channeled to our program specifically. If you or a neighbor have fabrics, notions, or old sewing machines you would like to donate, please contact me. I will pick them up if you can't leave them at the church. If you do drop them off at PCPC, please include your name and address with the donation so I can acknowledge it.

If you can provide fabric, we are currently in need of plain pastel shades of no-iron cotton fabric. We also need polyester stuffing to use for making small pillows. We make the pillows from scraps of leftover fabric, and they do not count against the family's maximum allotment of clothes. I've heard that the children are very excited when they receive one of the special pillows or toys.

We are always seeking others to join us who can sew, but even if you don't sew, we can still use your help in other areas. We meet at 9:30 a.m. the 3rd Thursday of the month, October through May. Please stop by and check out our new "closet" and workroom on the 2nd floor in Langill Hall.

If you have any questions about the program at all, I'd be happy to talk with you. You can contact me through the church office at 772-286-9958.

Sincerely,
Larry D. Jones

VBS Drama Camp

ART IS IN is returning to PCPC to put on another fabulous VBS Drama Camp with our children this June! This year's production is called "2 Tickets To Hollywood." Camp participants will put on a free performance for the public on Friday, June 22nd at 6:30 p.m. in the Huizenga Family Life Center.

What is "2 Tickets To Hollywood" about? It's 1938, and sisters Mary Jane and Molly Mortimer leave their hometown in Mapleton, Illinois for a trip to Hollywood. But when a chance encounter with famed Hollywood actor James Warren leads to a chance for a role in a movie, the girls believe they've gotten a lucky break. Before long, however, the studio begins pressuring them to change their names, to tell a made-up story about their background, and to abandon their hometown roots. Uncomfortable, the sisters learn that trusting God to direct their path is the true route to happiness and that even the glitter of Hollywood can't compete with Jesus.

Cost: $125.00 for the week (All participants receive a T-shirt. Snacks are included; please bring lunch.)

Space is limited; register as soon as possible.

Registration forms are available in the church office, Narthex, and Huizenga Family Life Center lobby.

Online registration: <http://www.palmcitypres.org/2018-drama-camp-sign-up/>

To pay online, click the ticket link <http://www.palmcitypres.org/giving/which> will bring you to the "Giving" section of our website. Click "Online Giving" and select "Quick Give." Choose "Drama Camp" from the dropdown menu.

We have a lot of hurting people who depend on this ministry team to keep them covered in prayer. Praying for others is a labor of love, and we have been blessed to have the desire to be a part of this team of prayer-givers. In the Lord's power, we stand together against the devil's spiritual warfare and offer up prayers to God for those in need.

We each pray over the requests written on the cards that are placed in the prayer box in the narthex. To prepare ourselves, we surrender to the Lord and let our prayers be a priority. We meditate on the words of the Holy Bible, asking God to give us wisdom and understanding as we read and study. We believe that God can and will answer prayers, that nothing is impossible with the Lord, and that He can work miracles in the lives of those for whom we pray.

Currently, our ministry team members are Sarah and Bill Bangle, Florine Blackshear, LaBarbara Chenault, Polly Forestier, and Phyl Sullivan.

If you have been inspired by God to be a Prayer Warrior and have one day a week to devote to this ministry, please contact the office for direction and assignment.

COMMUNITY BIBLE STUDY

Check it out for yourself! You've heard the buzz about Community Bible Study over the last 5 years – now it's time for you to learn more! Join us at Invite Night Thursday, April 19th, at 6:30 PM in Langill Hall for a presentation on CBS and how you can join. CBS is free from now until the end of the year as we start our registration for next year!

We love seeing what happens in people's lives when they discover God through the study of His Word. We have Bible studies for all age groups and stages of life, from classes for infants and teens to classes for adults who are single or married. Together we explore the Bible and what it tells us about the God who has woven a story through history and is present with us now. The first CBS class began in the fall of 1975 at Fourth Presbyterian Church in Bethesda, Maryland and is now in over 100 countries!

Community Bible studies meet once a week and include the following 5 elements:

Individual Study – Transformation happens as individuals engage with God in His Word. Stimulating home study questions help participants apply the timeless truths of the Bible to their daily lives.

Encouraging Discussion – Participants gain additional insights and grow in their confidence with God's Word as they discuss the passage in a safe, small group setting.

Effective Teaching – Trained teachers highlight and illustrate the central idea of the Bible passage and its practical application in each person's life.

Insightful Commentary – Respected theologians help participants understand the historical context of the passage and how it relates to the rest of Scripture.

Caring Community – Caring leaders pray for and encourage participants to grow spiritually and connect with each other in a loving and supportive community.
